Honorable Robert W. Minor
Acting Deputy Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Minor:

Thank you for your letter of December 29 enclosing the Northwestern Law Review article, "Role of the FBI in the Federal Employees Security Program".

I am sure that the clarification contained in this article will be most interesting and helpful to all persons participating in the administration of the Federal Employees Security Program.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The Northwestern Law Review for July-August, 1954, contained an article entitled "Role of the FBI in the Federal Employees Security Program" written by Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The Attorney General has secured a number of reprints of the article, and he has asked me to direct one to your attention. The article very carefully delineates the limited responsibility of the FBI in the security program, and effectively combats certain misconceptions which may exist in the minds of persons who have participated in the administration of the program.

We hope the article will be of help as well as of interest to you.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Minor
Acting Deputy Attorney General
